Limon Dance Company To Appear

Celebrating their 10th anniversary tour of the United States, Mexico's Limon Dance Company will perform in the El Camino College Campus Theater Friday, Jan. 31, at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale in the ECC bookstore for $3.50, $2.75, and $2.30.

Limon, who has been dancing for 30 years, is regarded by dance critics as one of the foremost American modern dancers and choreographers, and by some as "the leading male dancer of our era." His communication is so immediate with his audiences that it is the natural reaction to watch only him on the stage.

IN APPEARANCES here, Li-mon has selected three of his master-works that display a varied and vivid cross-section of his noted repertoire.

These include the award-winning "The Moor's Pavane," which adds a new dimension in dance to the timeless legend of "Othello," "Night Spell," a boldly affirmative work dealing with dream-figures and reality; and "The Traitor," whose tragic theme deals with out present era.

"What I want to do is give an audience an unforgettable experience. What I don't want to do is to amuse or entertain."

BECAUSE OF his aura of masculinity, most of Limon's audiences are full of men. "It is possible to have good legs and muscles and not be a dancer. Dancing is an utterance," Limon said.

Limon believes dancers have to believe in heart and soul. "Every modern dancer must have an open mind and believe in himself to destroy stage fright," he says.

"Dancing is psychic. When the curtain goes up on a performance, it is an act of faith. The body is a thing of beauty and that beauty is the temple of the soul," believes Limon.

Educator Honored By Board

Preparation of a scroll honoring the Planning Director of the Southern California Regional Occupation Center in Torrance has been approved, Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

On Chace's motion, the board unanimously voted to honor Haig Marshlian of the center.

"Haig Marshlian was largely responsible for master plans in-

Would you walk across the street for $111.80?

A lot of people save where they do out of habit or convenience, with little regard to the fine print in the passbook. If you wanted to withdraw $10,000 from your savings account after only, say, 80 days, Western Fed would give you your money and pay you earnings for every day—$111.80. Most savings institutions (including the five largest) require that your funds be held for 90 days or until quarter's end before they earn full dividends. To earn commercial banks' highest rate you must buy "Certificates of Deposit"...and you may withdraw those funds before maturity only in case of hardship, and then at less than full earnings! If $111.80 means something to you, look it up. Then look us up. Or drop us a line. Actually, we're as convenient as your mailbox and we pay all the postage.
